

Who we are & what we do.

prizeotel is a design hotel without airs and graces. And that's even at a budget price. We don't just talk, we prefer to do things – differently than the others. And you can see and feel that. Not only in service, equipment, and design - but also right in the heart. The most important thing for us is a relaxed tone and enjoyment of the job. Because honest commitment is a thousand times better than detail-obsessed lamentation. We don't want anyone to overwork themselves, because there's a life outside of work, right? That's why our credo is "better is more". And the greatest gift at the end of each day is: the satisfied smile of your guests.

And YOU are just who we need.

It won't work without you: Every hotel needs a good soul! The first impression counts. At prizeotel at the reception you can make the first impression on our guests. And it will be a good one, because you are friendly, smart, helpful, practical and fast - a mixture of scout and manager, so to speak. From saying hello to saying goodbye, you put joy into every detail. You enjoy interacting with people and remain relaxed and professional in every situation. Whether it was the drink you mixed or just your smile - your guests feel comfortable and look forward to seeing you again.

You're thinking check, check, check?

Then come and meet us, we would like to get to know you! 🌟

What you should bring with you?

A positive attitude, enthusiasm, and joy of working together in a great team.

What you can leave at home?

Formal standards & nervousness - just be yourself! For us, you don't need to pretend, because there is neither a fixed manual nor a required pre-education for this position!

Now you say: Mhhh cake, but where is my icing?

We say: above-standard pay, flat hierarchies, short decision-making processes, financial security through a permanent employment contract, above-standard vacation days, health benefit, public transport reimbursement, transfer opportunities, trainings, opportunities for promotion, the chance to work in a constantly expanding company in the long term, as well as great staff rates in all our hotels - also at the new locations & in Radisson Hotels and much more! 🍰

We are very much looking forward to hearing from you!
